Curriculum Register
November 19, 2012

This publication contains proposed curriculum changes. This Curriculum Register conforms to the curriculum review process as described in the Fall 2007 Curriculum Review Guide. It contains two sections, Campuswide Proposal Sharing, which includes a synopsis of course and program proposals that have been submitted for review to their department curriculum committee or program faculty and University Curriculum Committee (UCC) Recommendations that includes completed information on proposals reviewed by UCC.

Every proposal must complete all stages of the curriculum review process:

1. Submission of proposal(s) by originating department/program.
2. Review by every department/program in the school/college in which the program is housed.
3. Review by Department Curriculum Committee or Program Faculty.
5. Review by General Studies, Liberal Studies, or Graduate Council, when appropriate; preparation of impact statement.
6. Review by the Dean for school/college resource implication; preparation of resource impact statement.
7. Review by the Office of Academic Programs; preparation of university resource impact statement.
8. Review by the originating School/College Curriculum Committee.
9. Review by the University Curriculum Committee (UCC).
10. UCC recommendations posted in the Curriculum Register.
11. Review by Academic Affairs Program Effectiveness Committee, when appropriate.
12. Approval by Vice President for Academic Affairs or designee.
13. Approval by President, when appropriate.
14. Approval by Off Campus Approval bodies, when appropriate.

Moratorium for Proposals in Campuswide Sharing Stage:

There will be a 10 working day moratorium, starting from the publication date of the Curriculum Register, during which departments, deans, or individual faculty may raise objections or concerns, in writing, to the proposing School or College Curriculum Committee or Program Faculty for proposals in the campuswide sharing stage. The Campuswide Sharing section of the Curriculum Register contains only a summary of the curriculum proposal. Please ask the Department Curriculum Committee or Program Faculty for a complete proposal packet if you have questions or concerns.

Moratorium Date: December 4, 2012

Once the moratorium date has passed for campuswide sharing and no objections are received, the proposal will continue through the stages of the curriculum review process.

The Curriculum Register is produced by the Office of Academic Programs. Any questions or comments should be directed to Tracey Haney at ext. 3308.
CONTENTS

CAMPUSWIDE PROPOSAL SHARING

College of Arts and Humanities
- ENG 350 (modify course) ......................................................................................................................................... 4
- COM 389 (retire course) ........................................................................................................................................... 4
- COM 396 (retire course) ........................................................................................................................................... 4
- Minor in Hip Hop (new program) ............................................................................................................................. 4

College of Business Administration and Public Policy
- OMG 580 (new course) .......................................................................................................................................... 5
- OMG 570 (new course) .......................................................................................................................................... 5
- FIN 585 (new course) ............................................................................................................................................... 5
- MGT 580 (new course) ............................................................................................................................................. 5

College of Natural and Behavioral Sciences
- MAT 003 (modify course) ........................................................................................................................................ 6
- MAT 009 (modify course) ........................................................................................................................................ 6
- MAT 106 (new course) ............................................................................................................................................. 6
- MAT 132 (new course) ............................................................................................................................................. 6
- MAT 241 (modify course) ........................................................................................................................................ 6
- MAT 271 (modify course) ........................................................................................................................................ 6

UNIVERSITY CURRICULUM COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS

College of Business Administration and Public Policy
- Minor in Information Systems .................................................................................................................................. 8
CAMPUSWIDE PROPOSAL SHARING

The following proposal(s) have completed steps 1-3 of the Curriculum Review Process (see pg. 1 of Curriculum Register).
College of Arts and Humanities

Program/Course: ENG 350
Proposer: Anne Garrett
Type of Change: Modify Course
Summary of Changes: The English Department proposes to offer, ENG 350 as an online course to be used for the distance learning students in the BS in Nursing only.

Program/Course: COM 386
Proposer: Sharon Sharp
Type of Change: Retire Course
Summary of Changes: The Communications Department proposes to discontinue COM 386: Electronic Media. The course does not need the current curricular needs of the Department and the Department lacks the faculty to staff the course. The course is currently frozen and has not been offered in over 5 years.

Program/Course: COM 396
Proposer: Sharon Sharp
Type of Change: Retire Course
Summary of Changes: The Communications Department proposes to discontinue COM 396: Workshop in Video/Electronic Media Production. The course does not need the current curricular needs of the Department and the Department lacks the faculty to staff the course. The course is currently frozen and has not been offered in over 5 years.

Program/Course: Minor in Hip Hop
Proposer: Richard Kravchak and Salim Faraji
Type of Change: New Program
Summary of Changes: The College of Arts and Humanities proposes a new program, Minor in Hip Hop. This is an interdisciplinary minor involving Africana Studies, Theatre/Dance, Humanities and Music. This minor stems from the philosophical premise that, while a major gives a student content that relates to their professional aspirations, a minor can be an opportunity for a student to pursue a passion or avocation that is not necessarily related to how that student will earn a living. No one can deny that Hip Hop culture has become a part of not only the cultural life of African American young people, but that it has become an important part of American culture worldwide. In the book “That’s The Joint! The Hip-Hop Studies Reader” editor Murray Forman writes “We should be willing to take a scholarly look at hip-hop for no other reason than the art form and culture has grabbed global attention and sparked emulation in countless different countries and among widely varied ethnicities.” The following existing courses will be used in the proposed minor: MUS 101, AFS 202, DAN 110: Hip Hop, MUS 401, HUM 310: The Politics of Hip Hop in the African World.
College of Business Administration and Public Policy

Program/Course: OMG 580
Proposer: Wang-chan Wong
Type of Change: New Course
Summary of Changes: The MBA program proposes a new course, OMG 580, Supply Chain Management Systems. Information Systems and particularly Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) is one of the essential tools that has been utilized in any organization. In this course, the fundamental concepts of Information Systems and their applications in Supply Chain Management are covered. Students become familiar with existing SCM information systems, their pros and cons, and how to pick the one that is most appropriate for a particular supply chain. The course will be offered online.

Program/Course: OMG 570
Proposer: Hamid Pourmohammadi
Type of Change: New Course
Summary of Changes: The MBA program proposes a new course, OMG 570, Supply Chain Design and Strategy. This is the first core course of the proposed Global Logistics and Supply Chain option in the MBA. This course covers the fundamental concepts of supply chain management and introduces applications of decision models in supply chains with an emphasis on topics including demand forecasting, aggregate planning, inventory management, supply network design, transportation, coordination and sourcing. Spreadsheet based tools and techniques will be utilized in building various decision models for effective decision making in supply chains. This course will be offered online.

Program/Course: FIN 585
Proposer: Tayyeb Shabbir
Type of Change: New Course
Summary of Changes: The MBA program proposes a new course, FIN 585, Entrepreneurial Finance. This course focuses on the unique financing issues as they relate to starting, sustaining and growing a new business venture or a small business. The course covers topics such as sources of capital for start-ups, financial planning for growing businesses, venture capital, and Initial Public Offerings. Such information is essential for practical business inception as well as for exploring academic importance of start-ups and their survival and growth. This course will be offered online.

Program/Course: MGT 580
Proposer: Tayyeb Shabbir
Type of Change: New Course
Summary of Changes: The MBA program proposes a new course, MGT 580, Entrepreneurship in New and Existing Organizations. The course examines the nature of entrepreneurship and the entrepreneurial process in both a start-up and an existing corporate context. It explores a variety of issues involved in new venture creation, business plans, economics of the business, the resources needed and their acquisition, the structure of the organization, technology used, the harvesting plan and business ethics. This course will be offered online.
College of Natural and Behavioral Sciences

Program/Course: MAT 003
Proposer: George Jennings
Type of Change: Modify Course
Summary of Changes: The Mathematics Department proposes to modify, MAT 003, Beginning Algebra. The Department proposes to offer the course as a hybrid course.

Program/Course: MAT 009
Proposer: George Jennings
Type of Change: Modify Course
Summary of Changes: The Mathematics Department proposes to modify, MAT 009, Intermediate Algebra. The Department proposes to offer the course as a hybrid course.

Program/Course: MAT 106
Proposer: George Jennings
Type of Change: New Course
Summary of Changes: The Mathematics Department proposes to modify, MAT 106, Finite Math with Algebra Review. This course will fulfill the developmental/intermediate algebra with General Education mathematics requirements in one course.

Program/Course: MAT 132
Proposer: George Jennings
Type of Change: New Course
Summary of Changes: The Mathematics Department proposes to modify, MAT 106, Elementary Statistics and Probability with Algebra Review. This course will fulfill the developmental/intermediate algebra with General Education mathematics requirements in one course.

Program/Course: MAT 241
Proposer: George Jennings
Type of Change: Modify Course
Summary of Changes: The Mathematics Department proposes to modify, MAT 241, Technology for Teaching Secondary Mathematics by modifying the course prerequisite. The Department proposes to change the prerequisite from MAT 193 to MAT 153 or equivalent. This change will provide the students opportunity to get technology skills before taking Calculus.

Program/Course: MAT 271
Proposer: George Jennings
Type of Change: Modify Course
Summary of Changes: The Mathematics Department proposes to modify, MAT 271, Foundations of Higher Mathematics by modifying the course prerequisite. The Department proposes to change the prerequisite from MAT 191 to MAT 193 or equivalent. Due to the high DFW rate of the course, this change will better prepare the students for the course.
Curriculum Summary:
College of Business Administration & Public Policy

Program Modification

- Minor- Information Systems
  - Total units change from 15-17 units to 12-19 units
  - Preparation Courses for the Minor: 2 courses (6-7 units)
    - 1 courses from selected courses (3-4 units)
      - CIS 270
      - CSC 111
      - CSC 121
    - CIS 370 required (3 units)
  - The Minor Courses: 4 courses (12 units)
    - 2 required courses (6 units)
      - CIS 372
      - CIS 374
    - 2 courses (6 units) from selected courses
      - CIS 272
      - CIS 275
      - CIS 375
      - CIS 378
      - CIS 474
      - CIS 471
      - CIS 477
      - CIS 478
      - CIS 480
      - CIS 482
      - CIS 488
      - CIS 496