Adjunct Professor, Fulbright Scholar
Elizabeth Jackson Melds Disciplines for International Instruction

Elizabeth Jackson, an adjunct professor in negotiation, conflict resolution and peacebuilding (NCRP) at California State University, Dominguez Hills, has been a guest lecturer in 17 countries, with her latest assignment taking her to Russia.

Full article.

Senior Class Leaves Legacy of iPads to Library’s Technology Loan Program

Before graduating, the senior class of 2013 at California State University, Dominguez Hills added its collective two cents to the university. Or make that $4,941 payable to the University Library’s technology checkout program.

Full article.
Past ASI president Djeneba Myriam Coulibaly presents a check to University Library dean Sandra Parham.

First Art Exhibition of 2013-14 Season Features Art & Design Alumni Works

The “Alumni Art and Design Exhibition,” an invitational show featuring 80 works of art in varied media created by 24 alumni from the Art and Design Department at California State University, Dominguez Hills, will open with a reception with the artists from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 18, and continue through Oct. 9 in the University Art Gallery.

Full article.

Alumni Notes

John Bagnerise (B.A., ’12) was recently named as the 2012-13 CSU Dominguez Hills recipient of the CSU system’s most prestigious award, the CSU Trustees’ Award for Outstanding Achievement, bestowed to those students—one from each of the 23 CSU campuses—who demonstrate... superior academic performance, personal accomplishments, community service, and financial need. As part of that award, he was also named the 2013 Edison International Scholar, which includes a $6,000 scholarship. On Sept. 24, he was honored at a recognition ceremony held at the CSU Office of the Chancellor in Long Beach.

Cheryl Greer-Davis (B.A. ’79) (M.A.,’89), a 30-year veteran instructor at Cesar Chavez Alternative High School, is one of three instructors of a now award-winning program. The Civic Learning Program at the Compton Unified continuation school was honored with a 2013 California Civic Learning Award for engaging students in civic learning, which is co-sponsored by California Chief Justice Tani Cantil-Sakauye and State Superintendent of Public Instruction Tom Torlakson. The Chavez High School has been cited as a model for other schools and is the only continuation school named as an award recipient.

Kati Krumpe (M.A., ’94) has been named assistant superintendent of educational services at Culver City Unified School District. Dr. Krumpe was previously a district administrator at Torrance Unified School District, where she was honored as District Office Employee of the Year in 2008, 2010 and 2011, and Administrator of the Year in 2009. Dr. Krumpe began her career in education as a high school biology teacher, then served in school administration—she was honored as Elementary Principal of the Year for two years in a row in 2005 and 2006—before working at the district level. She also is an adjunct professor at USC and guest lecturer at Loyola Marymount University.

Frances Lopez-Zarate (B.A.,’93) (M.A.,’96) has been promoted to assistant principal at Antelope Hills Elementary School in Murrieta Valley Unified School District. Lopez-Zarate has been an educator for 20 years and since 2001 has been with Murrieta Valley USD, as a teacher at Alta Murrieta Elementary School, where she developed and coordinated their learning center and Response to Intervention program, and as an English teacher at Murrieta Mesa High School.

Katrina Manning (B.S., ‘10) has decided to exercise her civic rights and work on improving her community by running for one of two open seats on the Hawthorne City Council in the November 5th election.

Join us for the Schools FCU
3rd Annual Shop `til You Drop Car Sale and Loan Event

Drive away in your dream car and get funding for all your holiday needs!

When: October 25-27, 2013, Friday -Saturday 10 AM to 5 PM; Sunday 10 AM to 3 PM
Where: SFCU’s South Bay Branch, 2200 W. Artesia Blvd., Rancho Dominguez, CA 90220
What: A 3-Day car and loan sale with over 100 new and used cars, exclusive member pricing and trade-ins welcome.
Wow: SAVE MONEY with auto loan rates as low as 1.97% APR*
PLUS, enter to win a FREE Mexican Cruise for Two, Disneyland Family Fun Day and other prizes!†

FOR MORE INFO. OR FOR LOAN PRE-APPROVAL CALL:
866-459-2345, Option 3 or visit: www.schoolsfcu.org

*Annual Percentage Rate (APR) effective 9/26/13 and is subject to change without notice. Actual rate received based on applicant(s) credit qualifications.