Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the CSUDH Mediation and Conflict Resolution Certificate Program. The admissions committee for the College of Extended and International Education will review your application and inform you of the decision within two to four weeks of receipt. The information that you provide is confidential and will be used in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974.

Please send to:

CSUDH
College of Extended & International Education
Mediation and Conflict Resolution Certificate Program
1000 E. Victoria Street, EE 1300
Carson, CA 90747

Enrollment is limited. Applicants are encouraged to submit an application as soon as possible.

The following are criteria for admission into the Mediation and Conflict Resolution certificate program:

• Bachelor’s degree from an accredited university
• Submission of a completed application form
• Resume
• Official transcript from the institution where you received your highest degree

Policies

• All classes must be taken for a letter grade (A-F).
• Students must earn a minimum grade of 3.0 (B) in each course to be used as an elective in the CSUDH Negotiation, Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding Masters’ program. All other students must earn no course grade below a C.
• Tuition for the full program is due before the cohort starts.
• A student may withdraw from the program without financial or academic penalty only if his/her written (email preferred) intent to do so is received by CSUDH prior to the first day of class for the program.