Black Faculty and Staff Association

Deborah C. Sears Scholarship Application

Scholarship Amount: $500 to $1000

If a scholarship recipient is also awarded other financial aid, it may be necessary to reduce the amount of this scholarship in order to preserve the student’s eligibility for state and/or federal grant financial aid.

The “Deborah C. Sears Scholarship” is awarded to full-time undergraduate students who demonstrate academic excellence, community service and/or CSUDH school involvement, and are interested in improving the communities in which they live. Scholarship recipients should also exemplify the mission and goals of the California State University, Dominguez Hills’ Black Faculty and Staff Association, which is to encourage and promote the professional, academic and personal development of others.

Scholarship Criteria:

- Full-time CSUDH continuing undergraduate student - must have completed at least one semester at CSUDH at the time the scholarship is awarded.
- Minimum cumulative 3.0 GPA (includes CSUDH & transfer courses) - copy of unofficial transcripts required.
- Statement of community service and/or CSUDH school involvement; include names and contact information of references. Typed, double-spaced.
- 1000 word essay, typed, double-spaced. Topic: How my education will assist in improving the community in which I live.
