TRUE MYTH CABERNET SAUVIGNON
Paso Robles, California. It has been proven over time that Paso Robles is hands-down a stellar place to grow Cabernet Sauvignon. This wine is loaded with blackberry jam, cherry, black currant, exotic spices and cola, with notes of caramelized oak.

AU BON CLIMAT
Santa Barbara, California. A blend of Pinot Noir from six vineyards. Strawberries and raspberries aromas slowly climb out of the glass. Overtime more of the anise and clove will mix with these other aromas. Currently the wine is young with mouth filling intensity. This is a food wine, pairs great with red meats.

MATTHEWS 2012 BLACKBOARD RED
Woodinville, Washington. Blackberry, black currants and plum skin mix with dark spices and wildflowers. Swirling brings up richer black fruit, plum jam, vanilla bean and spice. The palate is ripe, rich and nicely textured. A young and exuberant style with big fruit and soft tannins. The 2012 Blackboard Red Wine is a wine that is produced and sold to help benefit Education in the State of Washington.
