The College of Arts and Humanities and
The Department of Theatre and Dance
Present

AUDITIONS

For

MACHINAL

Sophie Treadwell’s Machinal is the story of the Young Woman, a stenographer, living in the male-dominated industrial world of the 1920’s, where life is nothing like she hoped it would be. Restless and unfulfilled in a passionless marriage and unwanted motherhood, she finds her only joy in the form of an illicit love affair. But when reality sets in and she must return to her routine existence, she’ll go to any lengths to regain her freedom.

August 26th & 27th
from 6pm– 9pm

University Mainstage
Roles for 7 women 9 men, all ages and types

Please bring a headshot and resume and prepare a 1-2 minute dramatic monologue. There will be sides to read from as well.

Perusal script available in the Theatre Lounge on campus.

1000 E. Victoria St, Carson, CA 90747
310-243-3588